The gracious orders of H H the Maharaja were accordingly issued in Govt Ceo. no 1400-1 dated 14th September 1906

M. Shamanna, late Peshkar of the Sri Narayanaswamy temple at Melkote has petitioned the Dewan Saheb praying for a re-consideration of the orders of Govt passed dispensing with his services. The Petn is typed.

X. no. 3156 dy 4/2/08

Submitted

4/2/08 other petitions received from Shamanna are also submitted for perusal. It seems to be a hard case but it is a matter for consideration whether the order of 1906 should be revised & the petr appointed as Peshkar anywhere. The Chamaraj nagar Peshkar is very old & his retirement has been recommended in another file. There seem to be several applicants for the post 2nd C CSB 7/7

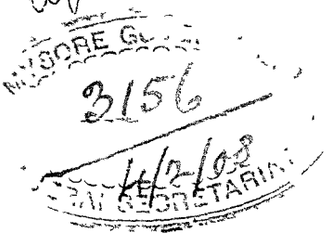
Dewan of Mysore



Your Gracious Majesty,

The petitioner, Maranaikanahalli Shamanna of Melkote, begs respectfully to bring the following lines into your favourable consideration.

The petitioner has been a resident of Melkote for a long time.

He looked after the duties of village Patel for some time, and the local Officers, being pleased with his conduct and work appointed him Peshkar of Sri Narayanaswamy temple in 1902.

Ever since that date he discharged the heavy responsibility cast on him with integrity and zeal and the then local Officers and the Officers of the Muzrai Secretariat have had proofs of this on several occasions.

But the recent Sub-Division Officer somehow began to suspect the conduct of the petitioner and from 1905 took notice of every trifling instance and collected the record against him with the result that he was charged with certain omissions on the plea that there were complaints against him without the report of the immediate Officer or any investigation as to the truth of the complaints . Four items of the charge against the petitioner which were communicated through the Deputy Commissioner were subsequently found incapable of proof. But the Local Government nevertholes discharged him from ser - vice on the consideration that he being a local man, might have incurred enmity by attaching himself the one or the other of the local factions, that he gave room for complaints having been on terms of ill-feeling with the local officers, and that his service being temporary could easily be dispensed with.

In these circumstances the petitioner begs to assert that:-

His appointment was on probation for a period of one year,

The appointment was made permanent after the comple- tion of the year,

Neither the temple Officials nor the village people ever suspected and complained against him,

None but the Sub Division Officer who held Office in 1905 ever made unfavourable reports against him.

That the petitoner feels it a great hardship that, having had his old appointment changed at the instance of the local Officers themselves he should be deprived of his living without proof of the charges framed against him.

The petitioner begs in conclusion that the whole set of records may be called for and perused and that he might be reinstated in his Office.

The petitioner begs to remain,

Your most obedient servant,

To,

The Government of His Highness

The Maharaja of Mysore,

Through L. Ananthasawmy Rao, Esquire, B.A.,

Secretary, Muzrai Department,

Bangalore.

The petition of Maranayakanahalli Shamana of Melkote late Peshkar of Sri Narayanaswamy Temple at Melkote humbly showeth:-

The petitioner is the permanent resident of Melkote. He was formerly a contractor in D.P.W., he evinced keen interest in public affairs and devoted greater part of his time in matters connected with religious demonstrations and was greatly helping the public authorities on such occasions.

His services were appreciated by Messrs.- M.G. Krishna Rao, the then Amildar (now the Vice President of Bangalore), N. Venkata Rao and P. Srinivasa Rao, Sub Division Officers, and H. Ramanuja Iyengar, the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore.

Mr. K. Doresawmy Iyer appointed him first as Village Patel and then to act as a Shekdar.

When he discharged these duties satisfactorily he was induced by his officers to accept the Peshkar's post of Sri Narayanaswamy Temple at - at Melkote, in 1902. Ever since that date he discharged the onerous duties devolved upon him with integrity and zeal.

During the out-break of plague in the years 1902, 1903,& 1904 when all the Subordinate Officials deserted their post, your humble petitioner stood at his post at great personal sacrfice and safe guarded the most valuable jewels to the aggregate of about Rs.100,000/- belonging to the temple. He was instrumental in inducing and encouraging many devotees to make a free gift of several valuable jewels to the extent of about Rs.20,000/-.

The general revenue of the Temple has increased in his time through his personal exertions. These facts may be verified from the records in the office as well as from the report made by all Local Officers who have always given him an excellent character.

Mr. K. Srinivasa Rao had for some reason or another cherished ill-will towards your petitioner and reported in 1905 unfavourably to the higher authorities without holding any enquiry nor asking any explanations from the petitioner.

Without any enquiry by any of the officers and without asking for any explanations regarding the charges formulated against him, the Proceedings of the His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore No. 1700-1 dated Bangalore 11th - September 1906, were passed and the petitioner's services were dispensed with.

That your petitioner submits to the favourable consideration of the benign Government as follows:- (1) that he lost all the prospects he had as a contractor before entering the Government services; (2) that he is about about 43 years of age and is unable to begin a new career; (3) that his services were dispensed with mainly because that the Government observed that he is probably mixed up with local factions and made enemies at Melkote and not an account of any of the charges being proved against him; (4) that no - local officer has ever made any unfavourable report against him except Mr. K. Srinivasa Rao; (5) that there has been no complaint of any kind either from ther village officials or temple officials, nor from any of the numerous devotees that report to the temple; (6) that your petitioner also submits that the appointment in Muzrai Department are conferred on several retired officials; (7) that your petitioner now hears that there is a likelihood of a vacancy caused by the retirement of Krishnappa, aged 70, Peshkar of Chamaraja-Nagar; (8) even if the Government are not disposed to quash the Proceedings, your petitioner may be given a new appointment.

Under these circumstances that your petitioner humbly prays that he may be appointed as Peshkar of - Chamarajendra Temple or any other suitable post which - the benign Government deems fit to appoint.

I beg to remain,

Your most obedient servant,

Bangalore.

24th February 1908

Yours faithfully,

Ramesh Kumar Sharma

Above orders already passed.

To,

K. P. Puttanna Chetty, Esquire,

2nd Councillor to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

The humble petition of Maranayakanahalli Shamanna of Melkote, late Peshkar of Sri Narayanaswai Temple at Melkote Most Respectfully Sheweth:-

The petitioner is the permanent resident of Melkote. He was formerly a contractor in D. P. W., he evinced keen interest in public affairs and devoted greater part of his time in matters connected with religious demonstrations and was greatly helping the public authorities on such occasions.

His services were appreciated by the officers and - appointed him first as Village Municipal Patel in 1898 and then a Sheikdar up to 1901.

When he discharged these duties satisfactorily he was indueed by his Officers to accept the Peshkar's post of Sri Narayanaswamy Temple at Melkote in 1902. Ever since that date he discharged his duties devolved upon him with integrity and zeal.

During the out-break of plague in the years 1902,03 & 1904 when all the subordinate officials deserted their post your petitioner stood at his post at great personal sacrifice and safe guarded the most valuable jewels of the Temple and also he was instrumental in inducing and encouraging many devotees to make free gifts of some valuable jewels.

The general revenue of the Temple has increased in his time through his personal exertions. These facts may be verified from the records in the office as well as from the reports made by all Local Officers who have always given an excellant character.

Without any enquiry by many of the Officers and without asking for any explanations regarding the charges formulated against him , orders were passed as petitioner's services are dispensed with.

That your petitioner begs to submit as follows:-

(a) that he lost all the properties he had as a contractor before entering the services of the Government,

(b) That his services were dispensed with mainly because that the Government observed that he is probably mixed with local factions and made enemies at Melkote and not an account of any of the charges being proved against him.

(c) that since 2 years he is put to greatest want and inconvenience to pull on with his livelihood.

(d) that your petitioner now hears that there is a likelihood of a vacancy caused by the retirement of Krishnappa Peshkar of Chamarajanagar and therefore he prays that the said post be bestowed to him and protect him.

For which act of kindness and charity he shall ever pray.
